

Dear Parent/Guardian:

The Federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 requires that each school district that receives federal funds must provide to military recruiters and institutions of higher education, the name, address, and telephone number of high school junior and senior students. This information is given upon request unless a parent or guardian indicates that their child's information not be shared.

Please indicate below if you do/do not wish to share contact information with a military recruiter.

Please return this letter to the Main Office Dropbox.

_____ I do not wish to have contact information for my child shared with military recruiters.
